As a Lakeside run, 18:30 came and past, because apparently it's not possible to expect people to organise their lives to get to somewhere in Melbourne in time to start at 18:30 ($\delta_{\text{score}} -1$). Just leave 10 minutes earlier and check google maps for fastest route, arrival times in current traffic conditions... it is not rocket science peeps.

semi-coherent directions about needing to mark checks and false trails... (we weren't sure if the directions were from the hare or a vagrant who lived at the park, deciding on the former)... while some were busy photo-shopping their event, before it started... (It is acknowledged the scribe has been known to take the odd selfie).

On On some time after 18:40...

Probably the warmest Hash weather all summer in this pleasant La Niña year – special thanks to Pythag-or-arse.

On on at 18:43 (yep this is lakeside) ($\delta_{\text{score}} -1$).

First 7m 08s

On On, south out of the park, left up Lawson Street to a check. On right, further south, right past two streets to a check back...

Prickly Bush setting a cracking pace early (and throughout).

But the wiley old GG wasn't one for check back to last corner, oh no... check back past two corners and on on east.

Next 6m 26s

A check at the corner of Fucker & Patterson had a few hashers checking, while a few unaccustomed to the role of FRB (in the absence of 4 Pack and Chicken Dicken) lazed around at the check. On On "called" in a Lakeside Hash whisper kinda way and off along Lahona Ave with the scribe a long way behind, having checked south along Fucker.

Next 6m53s

East to SSE along a very trendy brick paved section of Lahona Ave (thought this must be a short cut to a retirement home), and on on to a chck back. Continued along Lahona with the pack mumbling and grumbling about the heat to a check on East Boundary Rd... On on called, south on East Boundary Rd.

Next 6m25s

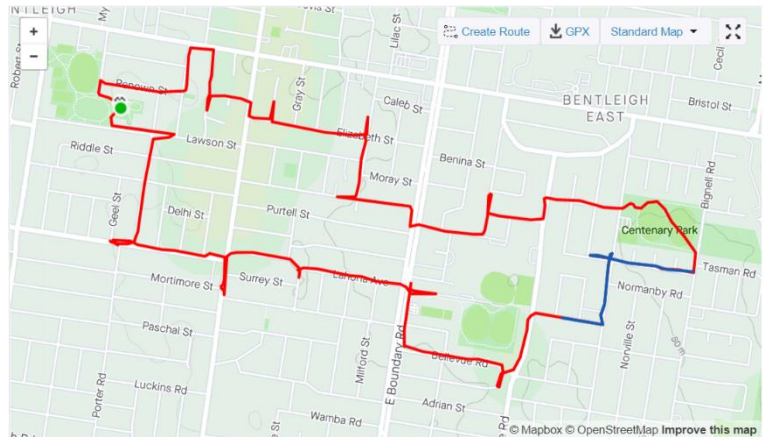

This is the scribes fastest split for this hash, a leisurely 6m25s... we really miss those FRBs.

Left across E Boundary Rd, East along Bellevue Rd, dog leg into Brad St and a not so bonny check back. This run is really taking us on a tour of the Bentleigh 'burbs ($\delta_{score} - 1$).

Next 7m 41s

With warm weather taking its toll, many a would be FRB have dropped off the pace as the trail had us plundering north along Brady Street and on to a check back, meandering looking for trail led to a regathering of FRBs reluctant to check. East along Millard St to Bignell Road.

Next 7m 47s

The slowest split of this Hash.

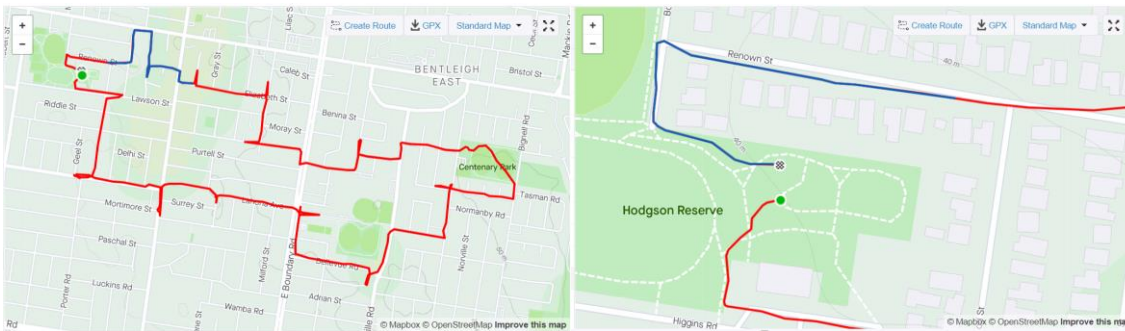

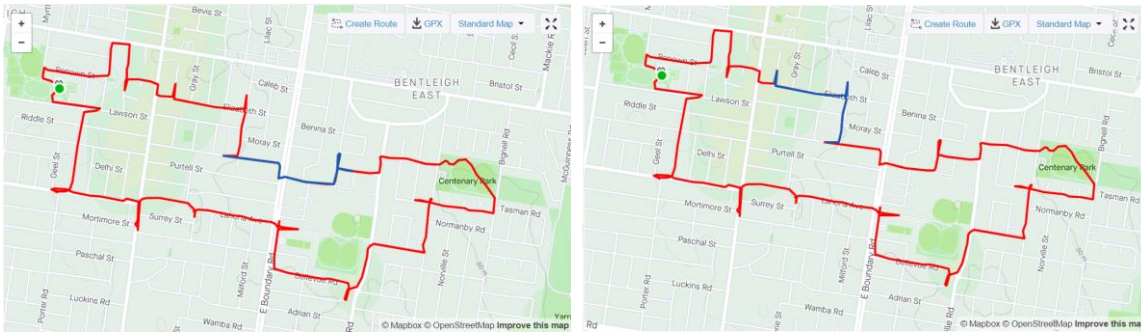

North on Bignell and into Centenary Park... Klingon, Pog, and Wild Rider following their noses across the grass in the hope of finding trail on the other side. Wild Rider nearly mauled by a dog (with a "D"), escaped with her life to call on on.

West out of Centenary Park to be met by Astro Boy and Cutloose (SCBs) wondering WTF we all had gotten to as they patiently waited for the trailing pack.

Across the street and a mind numbing amount of streets and check backs... ($\delta_{\text{score}} -1$)

A fairly flat trail (although the scribe felt as though all streets were up an incline), lots of suburban streets, one park (could have been more i.e. King George VI Memorial Park – bloody good king that one) ($\delta_{\text{score}} -1$).

Well marked ($\delta_{\text{score}} +1$), a bit boring ($\delta_{\text{score}} -1$), kept runners running ($\delta_{\text{score}} +1$), kept pack together ($\delta_{\text{score}} +1$)... all in all a good trail for an old fella who hasn't run in years!

And as down-downs were about to start AddOn came wondering in...

Down downs a plenty, and just four hardened souls (KlingOn, AddOn, WildRider, & Pog) back to the 4 Seasons Laksa on after!
