Following up from last week's Hash at Frankston, we ventured south again to Ye Olde English enclave of Kingston-on-Thames minus The Thames. The trail master has off' skited about his run setting prowess so this was to be an acid test.

Base was The Heath Common – simply cannot get more English than that!

Your trusty scribe arrived after 18:30 having been diverted by Google Maps mis-directions (any suggestions for better bicycling real-time navigators will be gratefully accepted), and Lakeside surprised him with a pre-19:00 start.

So catch up it was... in a blistering 5m58s first km away we went... with the scribe in not so hot pursuit some 10 minutes in arrears. Out to Kingston Road, left and left again along a walk way which became Turnbery Court (heading south). Back the south westerly corner of The Heath Common and on along Pinkhurst Way and the run proper. Cut through a park and on to Birkdale Ave.

Still in an un-hash-like canter, the next 6m08s scooted by, the scribe was running through checks, marked through by FRBs, 4 Pack and Whippet. Still no hashers in sight. Through Augusta Square right on Birkdale Ave – cleverly avoiding St Andrews Drive – named after a rebel Scottish Saint apparently), Gum Tree Park (WTF is “gum tree” park doing in this neighbourhood?), Warrigal Park and right through a park and south on Bettina Court. At last some hashers are in sight in the distance.

Next 6m09s - On and on and catching the tail end of the pack – Astro, Lots of Fun, and Point Post to name a few – but all on on'ing in true hash spirit.

Straight on through Farm Road Reserve and left on Centre Dandenong Road. Left again to keep us away from traffic – into Shirian Street and a northerly direction. The first inkling of a turn toward home base.

The next blistering (for the scribe and hash) 5m50s and in the pack proper, although the hare has clearly spread this lot out by a long way. Only checks, not check-backs, will do that (δ -score -1). Through streets and laneways, seeing the Lakeside GM E&B, Punch, Nickel B, and Kokup leading this mini-pack.

With checks and trail now in play, the scribe's pace drops off to a more leisurely 6m23s for the next session. On on to a check (being held seemingly) – finally caught up – Kingston Heath Reserve.

Pythagorarse appears mumbling something about dunnies, and there's Shiny Dick, Horatio and others, and the usual FRB's Whippet, 4 Pack, and Better at Krogers. But WTF Wet Pussy is at the check, this SCBing MF started after the scribe and teleported to a check half way through the run! In the rare check-back slyness the hare sent everyone on on to the north and a check back, with the scribe east by some playing fields and a game of hockey... with the runs checks now in play. Out of the Heath and onto Farm Road and a sense (from an inertial navigation perspective) that home must be getting close.

On on along Farm Road and trying to keep up with the FRBs sees the pace back to 6m04s. A dubious left (south) along Helen Court, through a lane allows hare enabled SCB L3H3's GM Klingon to charge ahead leading the pack. The three stooges (following trail) 4 Pack, Whippet, and Pog get back onto Farm Road, head north into Beatrice Street and back toward Ye Olde England.

The last km and a bit at the most leisurely 6m23s, around St Georges Park north west on St Georges Crescent north east by Augusta Park, St Andrews Drive, Norfolk Pine Park, Cypress Point Parade, Cypress Point Walk, and just like that – back to The Heath Common.

Really interesting run through Ye Olde England, that I for one did not know existed, big up Pythagorarse (δ -score +2).

In a stroke of planning genius 4 Pack had Point Post's car keys. He was thinking about taking the Porsche for a spin, but his need for beer won out (δ -score +1). The hare provided some nosh and everybody was happy (δ -score +1), although the down-downs had more rules than a cricket match, but that didn't deter us too much – and not fair to deduct from the hare's great run.

Good job, thanks Pythagorarse.

Pretty much everybody will be looking after themselves, but if there's interest through the group we might be able to arrange groups for AirBNB, backpackers, etc.

Also with sufficient numbers we will look at shirts.
